Location

Surrounded by the naturally stunning, year-round beauty of the Swiss Alps, The Chedi Andermatt nestles elegantly among the traditional ski chalets so characteristic of this timelessly charming village in the Ursern Valley.

Getting here

Andermatt is 90 minutes from Zurich and only 45 minutes from Lucerne by car. Once you leave the motorway at the Göschenen junction, Andermatt is only 10 minutes away. On site, guests can take advantage of the hotel's own underground car park. Guests can relax and enjoy the impressive scenery as they travel from Zurich to Andermatt by train in two hours. The station, where the Glacier Express also stops, is within walking distance of the hotel.

The hotel at a glance

The Chedi Andermatt perfectly combines authentic Alpine chic with Asian design elements. The five-star deluxe hotel has 123 spacious rooms and suites in which traditional materials, such as warm woods and natural stone, create a stylish and intimate atmosphere. The hotel also offers a variety of excellent dining experiences, with guests enjoying the choice of four outstanding restaurants and bars. Guests can find peace and relaxation in the unique Spa and Health Club, covering some 2,400 m².

Rooms

In the 123 tastefully decorated rooms and suites Alpine chic meets Asian elegance, with stunning views over the Gemsstock, the village of Andermatt, the Schöllenen gorge, the Nätschen and the Oberalp area. Dark Alpine wood, soft leather armchairs, cosy sofas, panorama windows and fireplaces bring the magic of the mountain landscape into the comfortable, spacious

The cuisine at The Chedi Andermatt is a gastronomic statement, offering guests the choice of four outstanding dining venues. In The Restaurant, four show kitchens serving Asian and European fare tempt guests with dishes prepared before their very eyes. The Japanese Restaurant was awarded a Michelin Star in 2017 and is the only Michelin starred restaurant in Andermatt, offering all the pleasure of authentic Japanese delicacies at the sushi and sashimi bar and at the tempura counter. Boasting at least 15 GaultMillau points each, Armin Egil is Chef de Cuisine and responsible for all food outlets at The Chedi Andermatt, except The Japanese Restaurant (1 Michelin star, 16 GaultMillau points) where Dietmar Sawyere is the Executive Chef. Sawyere is also responsible for the entire gastronomic concept of Andermatt Swiss Alps. In the winter months The Chalet, is open serving traditional fondue to raclette.

The Wine and Cigar Library is the perfect place to while away the evening, inspired by a fine selection of literature and sumptuously illustrated books. The Bar and Living Room is an ideal après-ski meeting place. Light culinary delicacies are served in The Lobby, The Courtyard, and at the pool bar, The Pool.

Spa and Fitness

The Spa

Wellness lovers can visit The Spa and take advantage of several baths and saunas (including a sauna and a Finnish sauna), a steam bath, a warm- and cold-water plunge pool, a hammam, an ice fountain and flower baths. Guests can relax as they wish while enjoying rejuvenating spa treatments in one of the ten spa suites. The Spa is deeply rooted in Far-Eastern philosophy and calls on traditional Asian healing arts. Manicures, pedicures and hairstyling are also available. The impressive 35-metre long sports pool with glass roof and the 12-metre long heated outdoor pool are also firm favourites.

The Health Club

The in-house fitness studio boasts cutting-edge Technogym fitness equipment. The Technogym range is equipped with the VISIOWEB digital platform and offers a range of free weights, a kinesis training wall, Power Plates and Pilates apparatus. Guests taking advantage of the fitness studio may also participate in group classes (e.g. yoga and Pilates) or group/individual training with a personal trainer.

Golf Course

The Andermatt Swiss Alps golf course is an 18-hole course (par 72), designed in accordance with ecological criteria and beautifully set in the spectacular natural landscape. Covering 130 ha (one-third golf course, one-third farmland and one-third ecological compensation area) and stretching some 6 kilometres in length, this golf course meets international tournament standards. It is only a few minutes on foot from The Chedi Andermatt. The "Alpine Golf" offer also includes the Sedrun, Realp and Source du Rhône courses (all 9 holes).
